The Old Man and the Sea

Ernest Hemingway 1993

Set in the Gulf Stream off the toast of Havana, Hemingway’s magnificent fable is the story of an old man, a young boy and a giant fish. In a perfectly crafted story, which won for Hemingway the Nobel Prize for Literature, is a unique and timeless vision of the beauty and grief of man’s challenge to the elements in which he lives.

101 Conversations in Simple English

Olly Richards 2009-10

The first book in the world to teach you real, everyday English. No audio CD’s, no games, just 101 conversations in simple English, so you can learn real English on your own - in 2 hours a day. This book is for everyone. Each conversation is limited to around 10 lines (around 100 words), so you can finish each conversation, and say “I actually understood all of that!” Summaries of each conversation contextualise each dialogue, so you can easily follow the plot and enjoy the story without getting lost. The story is set in London, England and includes some experiments that can’t typcially be English. However, the conversations are actually “natural English” that will help you to sound like American English, or any other variety of English! Created by Olly Richards, internationally renowned language teacher and author. 101 Conversations in Simple English gives you education to real English that you won’t find elsewhere. You’ll be better prepared for using English in the real world, speak with more confidence, and take a giant leap towards fluency in English!
